York is a fantastic city and a great place to live, as you'll quickly learn being here. One of the best things about it, without a doubt, is its pub scene. It's an often recited fact that there's more pubs in York than there are days of the year – so get it on your bucket list that you've got to try out each and every one during your three years here.

If spending your time in the company of sweaty, pissed-up clubbers whilst listening to Avicii's latest hit isn't your idea of a good time, then there's a metric tonne of different places to go out in these parts. Here, we take a look at ten of the best...

On a serious note, there is an alcohol exclusion zone within the City Walls of York nowadays, so don't drink alcohol in the streets. It's worth adding as well not to take this as a definitive list. There are literally hundreds of pubs in York that are brilliant, and they're all worth visiting at some stage.

Either way, there's no doubt that there's few places better than York to grab a pint and some grub. We do things proper up North.
